CARDINAL IN CHAIR

Presides Over the Catholic University Meeting.

CHURCH DIGNITARIES THERE

Resolutions of Condolence on Death of Archbishop Williams, of Boston, Vice President of Board of Trustees. New Board Elected, Archbishop Ryan Being Named Vice President.

Cardinal Gibbons, as chancellor of the Catholic University, presided at the semiannual meeting of the board of trustees of the university, held yesterday in Cald-

During the meeting, the cardinal was requested to write an acknowledgment of the university and its adherents, to the encyclical letter recently published by Pope Pius IX. Resolutions of condolence were passed for the loss of Archbishop Williams, of Boston, late vice presiden of the board of trustees. Following this an election of new members to the board took place, consisting of Archbishop Moeller, of Cincinnati; Blenk, of New Orleans, and O'Connell, of Boston; Monsignor Lavelle, of New York; Mr. Eugene Philbin, of New York; Mr. Walter G. person to take the law into his own Smith, of Philadelphia, and Richard C. hands to avenge a private wrong?" Kearns, of St. Louis

Archbishop Ryan Named.

Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, was elected vice president of the corporation, Attorney Hoover, who asked him a num-The reports of the rector and treasurer were accepted and approved, and much gratification was expressed at the healthy condition of the university.

voted to grant the request of the Insti- court?" tute of Science, of New York, for affiliation with the Catholic University.

Those present at the meeting were Carthe university.

The finance committee, consisting of $98,259.05; cash on hand, $232,505.77.

Unanimous in Praise.

ther development.

other members of the board of trustees, flict capital punishment. now numbers twenty-five, were unable to attend the meeting.

WANT A STEEL FOUNDRY.

Southeast Citizens to Place Bill Before Congress.

At the meeting of the Southeast Citizens' association last night, at Washington Hall, Second street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast, the principal business transacted was the inc of the bill to be placed before Congress at the coming session, for the establishment of a new steel foundry at the Washington Navy Yard.

It was stated such an establishment would afford employment for hundreds of men, and save the government thousands of dollars, which would otherwise go to private corporations in other cities. J. T. Herrmann, who presided, instructsioners requesting them to order im-provements on the streets in southeast Washington, which are at present in a deplorable condition.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Washington, Wednesday, Nov. 13, 1907-8 p. m. Following the very rapid eastward movement of a low pressure area over the northern portion of the country, comes another decided high area, accompanied by falling temperature, the districts affected on heing temperature, the districts affected to hight extending from Montana and the Dakotas castward into the Northern Upper Lake region. Temperatures are also below the seasonal average over the remaining districts east of the Rocky Mountains, especially in the South. It is, however, considerably warmer in the Southwest than on Monday and Tocatan.

Owing to the prevailing high pressure in the West and Northwest, and the favorable location of its crest over the latter district, fair weather, with comparatively low temperatures, may be expected quite generally east of the Rocky Mountains for the next generally east of the Rocky Mountains for the next two or three days, although the usual occasional snow flurries may be expected along the windward shores of the Great Lakes.

The winds along the New England coast will be fresh to brisk westerly; on the Middle Atlantic coast fresh west to northwest; on the South Atlantic coast light to fresh northerly; on the East Gulf coast light northerly; on the West Gulf coast light and mostly northerly; on the Lower Lakes fresh west to northwest, except brisk Thursday on Ontario, and on the Upper Lakes fresh northwest to north.

Steamers departing Thursday for European ports will have fresh to brisk westerly winds and fair weather to the Grand Banks. SPECIAL FORECAST.

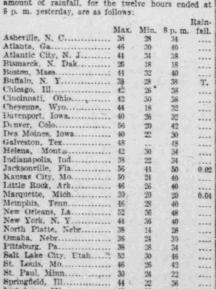

Storm warnings are displayed on the Great Lakes, except at Duluth, Milwaukee, and Chicago sections. Warnings of heavy frost have been issued for Northern Florida.

Local Temperature.

Midnight, 36; 2 a. m., 36; 4 a. m., 35; 6 a. m., 35; 8 a. m., 34; 10 a. m., 36; 12 noon, 42; 2 p. m., 43; 4 p. m., 44; 6 p. m., 40; 8 p. m., 38; 10 p. m., 36. Maximum, 44; minimum, 33.

Relative humidity—8 a. m., 81; 2 p. m., 42; 8 p. m., 54. Rainfall (8 p. m., to 8 p. m.), T. Hours of sunshine, 10.13 Per cent of possible sunshine, 100. Temperature same date last year—Maximum, 46; minimum, 34.

Temperatures in Other Cities. Temperatures in other cities, together with the amount of rainfall, for the twelve hours ended at Vicksburg, Miss., Portland, Me..... Tide Table. Today-High tide, 2:54 a. 1 ide, 9:42 a. m. and 10:14 To-morrow-High tide, 4:00 low tide, 10:40 a. m. and 11:15 p. m.

SEEN AT TRIAL OF MRS. BRADLEY.

United States Marshal Springman.

Attorney Hoover

ELEVEN MEN ARE SEATED IN THE BOX

Continued from Page One.

"No, sir," responded the talesman, "1

Mr. Feeney was then turned over to to succeed the late Archbishop Williams. ber of questions, as to whether the talesman was married, &c., and then asked: "Have you any prejudice against insanity as a defense, and would you give it the same consideration and weight as It was further decided to increase the any other defense, basing your conclufaculty of philosophy by the addition of a sion upon the evidence as you hear it, department of education, and it was and the law as outlined to you by the half-past nine o'clock, in order to give

Mr. Feeney sald he possessed no prejudice against insanity as a defense, and The children were taken from the buildwould give it the same weight and condinal Gibbons, of Baltimore; Archbishops sideration as any other species of de-

San Francisco; Glennan, of St. Louis, and asked by the prosecution and the defense, jail, and later was taken back to his Bishops Maes, of Covington, Ky.; Har- Several of the talesmen had scruples grandmother. kins, of Providence, R. I.; Foley, of De- against capital punishment where the troit, Mich., and Mgr. O'Connell, rector of defendant was a woman, and were promptly challenged for cause.

By far the most interesting talesman Messrs, Michael Jenkins, Charles J. Bon- was David M. Lee, an insurance manaaparte, D. J. O'Connell, and Adrian Iselin, ger. Mr. Lee said he was born in Virjr., sent in the following report: Securi- ginia, and was from a section of the ties redeemed, $3,000,000; investments made, country that believes in a "higher law." He was promptly challenged by Mr. Baker, but Mr. Hoover took issue, holding The board was unanimous in its praise this would not disqualify Mr. Lee from of the steady growth of the university, in sitting as a juror. After some questionorganization, academic work, and finance, ing by both sides, Mr. Lee said he was Joyce announced that, by order of the Netherlands. During the peace conferand predicted a hopeful prospect of fur- not irrevocably prejudiced against capital punishment, but that it would take strong Telegrams of regret were received from evidence to induce him to vote to in-

"Do you believe," asked Mr. Baker, "in the right of a person to take the law into his own hands?" Mr. Lee replied:

"Under some circumstances. I do." "If you were accepted as a juror, could ou render a verdict in accordance with the evidence?" asked Mr. Hoover. "I believe I could," responded Mr. Lee.

Not Well Taken.

Attorney Hoover maintained that Mr the talesman in hand, but Mr. Lee reiterated his belief in the "higher law." "In certain matters, I believe in taking affairs into your own hands," he said. Justice Stafford then allowed the district attorney's challenge for cause, to which Mr. Hoover noted an exception. Samuel J. Grav. colored, caterer, was a ed the committee on streets to again talesman who did not believe in insanity enter a protest to the District Commisas a defense. He satisfactorily answered all of the government's questions, and when turned over to Mr. Hoover, the latter asked the usual questions, and the question as to whether he would give consideration to insanity as a defense.

"No," responded the colored man, "! don't believe in it." "Why don't you?" asked Mr. Hoover. "Well," said the caterer, "in all the cases that come up that is the first thing they put up." On being questioned by District Attorney Baker, Gray said he thought he could render a verdict in accordance with the evidence. He was finally peremptorily William H. Neuland, who conducts a There were light local snows in the Lake region and St. Lawrence Valley, and rains along the South Atlantic and North Pacific coasts; elsewhere gentitive of Germany, married, and with seven children, was challenged for cause, having said he had conscientious scruple against capital punishment in the case of a woman. Charles H. Wilcox, manager of the or dinary department of the Prudential Insurance Company, said he had no con scientious scruples against capital punish-"Would you have conscientious scruples against the death penalty in the case of a woman?"

A Positive Statement.

"I would not vote that way," responded Mr. Wilcox in such a positive manner that it caused a wave of laughter to promptly silenced by Court Crier Joyce and the bailiffs.

Walter E. Baum was excused because he did not believe in capital punish-

Michael Peter, jr., grocer, was excused because he had formed an opinion, which t would be difficult to change. William Hannan was excused on ac count of scruples against capital punishment. Ralph W. Lee presented a doctor's certificate to Justice Stafford, and was

Other talesmen were excused for hav ing formed opinions, and having rather vague ideas as to their scruples against capital punishment, and for other reasons. Several times Clerk Hawken announced that the jury was completed, whereupon either the defense or the prosecution would exercise the right of peremptory challenges, and a talesman would be called and examined. By the time he had qualified, consultations or either side would end with objections being found to a talesman previously ac cepted, and he would be peremptorily hallenged, and a vacancy created.

Dead Man's Son There. Max Brown, son of Senator Brown, was and traveler, and former resident of this one of the first arrivals at the courtroom city, died suddenly at his home in Camin the morning, occupying a seat within bridge, Mass., yesterday. Mr. Frost was a few feet of the woman on trial for her a veteran of the civil war, having enlife for the death of his father. He is a listed in the army at this city. He was young man, aged about twenty-one years, a noted traveler, having accompanied with a clean shaven face. He was dressed George J. Kennan in the latter's journey in a brown suit. He wore eye-glasses, and of investigation through the Siberian

Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days on every box. 25c was discontinued on the news of cess of the second Atlantic cab Frost was sixty-four years old.

District Attorney Baker

followed the proceedings closely. He will DAVID JAYNE HILL ARRIVES be placed on the stand by the government. When his father was wounded, he telegraphed for the son, who hurried here, and was at his father's side at the end. When court adjourned, and Mrs Bradley arose to accompany a deputy marshal down the steps to the pen below, a woman friend approached her, and asked what she thought of the jury. She replied she was leaving the selection of the jury en-tirely in her attorneys' hands, and she relied on their judgment completely

Arthur and Montgomery, Mrs. Bradley's little boys, accompanied by Mrs. Maddison, their grandmother, Mrs. Bradley's mother, greeted their mother when she arrived at the courthouse. Deputy Mar-Bradley from the jail to the courthouse a light spring wagon, arrived about the children and their mother an opportunity to be together before court opened. ing, when Mrs. Bradley went up stairs, but they were back again at recess and

NOTES OF THE TRIAL.

As soon as the jury is complete and sworn, and the presentation of evidence begins, all witnesses will be excluded from the courtroom.

On Monday, newspaper photographers present.

Photographers barred from the courtplaced in the wagon to be taken back nothing until near New York, but is on to jail, and, as she emerged from the account of the usual vacation. east basement door, accompanied by little Montgomery, she was greeted by the whole corps, who had assembled in full

Women were noticeably absent from the courtroom.

It is expected that the jury will be com-Baker's challenge for cause was not well I pleted and the opening statement of the taken, whereupon Justice Stafford took government made by the time recess is taken to-day. Both sides were of said to be serious. Harold Vanderbiult three days to fill the box.

> Justice Anderson, who presides over student at Harvard. Circuit Court No. 2, was a spectator during a part of the afternoon session, oc-

Judge Orlando Powers, of Salt Lake City, who will take an active part in the examination of witnesses from his home city, took little part in the selection of Hoover and Wells.

NEW JUSTICE IS SELECTED

Attorney General Says Western Man Will Succeed McComas.

Declares That All Washingtonians Have Been Eliminated in the President's Choice.

A Western man is slated to fill the vaancy on the bench of the Court of Appeals, caused by the death of Justice Mc-Comas. Attorney General Bonaparte nade the announcement yesterday that the President had made a selection, and would offer him the place. If he does not accept, it will be tendered to a man in another State, it is said. It has also been announced that the appointment will not go to a Washington or a Maryland man. There was a rumor current yesterday that George R. Gaither, former law partsweep across the room. This was ner of Justice McComas, and who was recently defeated for the governorship of Maryland, would be tendered the posi-tion, but the Attorney General's statement eliminates Mr. Gaither and other Marylanders, and also Washington candi-

Court Awaits New Judge.

Chief Justice Shepard, of the Court of Appeals, announced to the bar yesterday that the hearing of cases by the court would be indefinitely postponed on account of the vacancy created by the death of Justice McComas. An exception was made in favor of the ase of Joseph Paolucci, the condemned nurderer of Elizabeth Dodge, whose execution has been postponed until Decem The court directed a reargument in this case, and set the hearing for next The action of the court in the Paolucci case was made necessar ecause Justice McComas was engaged in writing the opinion in the case when

DEATH OF GEORGE A. FROST. Sudden Passing of Distinguished Artist and Traveler.

George A. Frost, widely known artist prisons in 1885. Mr. Frost also made a journey through Siberia eighteen years before that taken as a member of an English expedition. The object of this was the selection of a telegraph route from America to Europe through northern Asia, but the expedition was discontinued on the news of the suc cess of the second Atlantic cable. Mr.

BRITISH LIKE KAISER.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

pect. Commerce can develop among nations that have learned to trust one an other." The Kaiser's speech was applauded throughout. Those who remembered his appearance in 1901, when he left London after Queen Victoria's funeral, noticed a great change in his face, which to-day was lined with fatigue. The royal party left Paddington Station on the return journey to Windsor at 3:20

The hostility of the Socialists toward the Kaiser and their open incitement of the public to greet him with hoots, groans, and hisses resulted in exceptional police precautions to prevent disturbing incidents. All known anarchists and socialists of advanced views were closely cialists of advanced views were closely watched by the detectives. watched by the detectives.

A man on Cheapside, who was wearing a conspicuous red tie, received considerable attention, and was at one time threatened with rough usage. But he proved to be a respectable citizen whose unfortunate choice of a tie led to the misunfortunate choice of a tie led to the mis-

Talks of His Appointment to the Berlin Post.

Has Not Yet Been Officially Informed by President Roosevelt.

Valuable Work.

David Jayne Hill, who, it has been announced at the State Department, will become the next Ambassador from the United States to Germany, arrived in Washington last night.

Mr. Hill said the first news he received of his appointment as representative to Germany, to succeed Charlemagne Tower, was at the hands of friends. "I was when court adjourned for the day, and very pleasantly surprised to hear of this York; Ireland, of St. Paul; Riordian, of These were the two chief questions by his mother, accompanied her to the San Francisco; Glennan, of St. Louis and asked by the president Rooseveit of the appointment I cannot say that I will accept. That wouldn't be courteous, you know, because I really. haven't received the appointment." Mr. Hill did not say he would refuse the Ambassadorship, and looked as if he were pleased at the proffer of it, even if it came only through the State Department. Mr. Hill has rendered valuable service stationed themselves in the courtroom to to the United States in many posts. He take snap shots of Mrs. Bradley, and was Assistant Secretary of State under there were also several sketch artists the late John Hay, has been Minister to Tais morning, Court Crier Switzerland, and is now Minister to the court, cameras would not be permitted ence at The Hague, Mr. Hill is reported in the courtroom. Sketch artists were to have rendered invaluable assistance to the American delegation. His presence in America is not on account of room waited until Mrs. Bradley was this appointment, of which he knew

HAROLD VANDERBILT ILL.

Brother of Duchess of Marlborough Has Typhoid at Harvard.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 13.-Harold Vanderbilt is ill at the Stillman Infirmary at Cambridge with typhoid fever. He was the opinion, before the selection of a is a son of William K. Vanderbilt, and a jury began, that it would take two or brother of the Duchess of Marlborough. He is twenty-three years old and is a

POLICE TO GUARD DOUMA.

Extraordinary Precautions Taken to Protect Members of Assembly. London, Nov. 14.-The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Tribune, referring the jury, leaving this matter in the hands of his Washington associates, Attorneys attendant upon the coming opening of the Douma, for protecting the deputies, and for limiting the admission of the public to the sessions, declares that they are due to the authorities fearing an attempt will be made to blow up the Tauride Palace, where the Douma meets, their apprehensions being based upon a story communicated to Senor Stolypin. The correspondent ridicules the story, but says he learns that many officials appointed to the Douma's service have resigned in consequence of it, GEN. GRANT ENTERTAINED.

Gov. Swanson Gives Reception for Distinguished Guest.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 13 .- A brilliant reception was tendered to-night at the executive mansion by Gov. and Mrs. Swanson, in honor of Gen. and Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant.

The mansion was decorated for the oc easion in palms and ferns and American Beauty roses, and the State and national colors. The members of the governor's staff and all the officers of the Virginia militia were in attendance. Lieuts. Philip Haxall Bagby and Harry N. Cootes came up from the exposition to be present. Gen. and Mrs. Grant have been thrown such in contact with Gov. and Mrs. Swanson at the exposition, where Gen. Grant has represented the army. The re ception was one of the most noted events, of the present administration.

It Is Not Distrust.

Or lack of confidence in relatives, friends, or business advisers that leads so many men and women to appoint a Trust Company executor in their wills.

> It is merely a recognition of fact that individuals are subject to disease and death, to vicissitudes of fortune, to change character; and that on the other hand, the trust company is permanent, financially responsible under inspection and control of the State, and has the machinery and equipment to prudently and economically administer estates.

Consult Us Before Making Your Will.

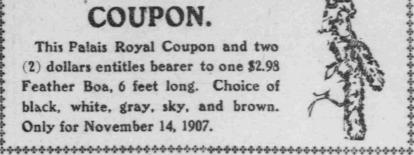

FUNERAL FLOWERS AMERICAN SECURITY AND TRUST COMPANY

Northwest Corner of Fifteenth and Pennsylvania Avenue.

COUPON.

This Palais Royal Coupon and two (2) dollars entitles bearer to one $2.98 Feather Boa, 6 feet long. Choice of black, white, gray, sky, and brown. Only for November 14, 1907.

PALAIS ROYAL.

R. REMNANT DAY.

Please memorize these two important facts: Thursday is the Palais Royal day, and with the store remnants are always linked manufacturers' and importers' oddments. Thus we have a Bargain Day in the best sense of the word..

This 5-foot Rug, 89c.

Thursday, Nov. 14.

The designs and colorings are perfect. Reversible-both sides being alike. One hundred of these Rugs come from a maker who knows we are ever ready to pay prompt cash for a good bargain.

$10 for $16.50 Smyrna Rugs.

These are store remnants—two Rugs used in show window, and slightly shopworn. Heavy all-wool Smyrna Rugs, measuring 71/2×101/2 feet.

Lace Curtains at Exactly Half Price.

The prices marked on them range from 98c to $10. To-day's prices are 49c to $5. What's the matter with them? Nothing—only that we have but one to two pairs of a pattern. They prove irritating remnants to us, especially when a visitor admires any of them and requires three or four pairs to match.

Matting-covered Bamboo Tables. Reduced 25c Brussels Rugs, 18x36 inches. Reduced from 39c

25c Pure Linen Collars, 121/2c. They are best of 25c Collars; they are best of newest shapes; some are daintily embroidered, some are in drawn-work designs. All are laundered to perfection, and sizes are here from 12 to 15, inclusive. The maker sends them guaranteed in every detail.

Kid Gloves, 54c and 98c.

The $1.25 and $1.50 Kid Gloves used in the show windows and for decoration in the department, about one hundred pairs, are to be 54c for choice. 98c a pair for the importer's oddments, among which are Men's $2.00 Deerskin Gloves and all styles of Ladies' Kid Gloves that sell regularly at $1.50 per pair.

49c for Long, 16-Button Gloves.

Chamois-finish Gloves, fleece lined. They are the ideal gloves for second best wear and for cold days when kid gloves are a discomfort.

Palais Royal A LISNER Gand 11th

THE STATES OF TH

If YOU Appreciate

D'Inspect our showing of exclusive importa-

E. H. Snyder & Co., Tailors,

IIII PENN. AVENUE N. W.

DIED. BERGLING-On Tuesday, November 12, 1907, at 2:15 a. m., at her residence, 710 Fifth street north-west, JOSEPHINE, widow of George Bergling.

in her seventy-eighth year.
Funeral from her late residence, 710 Fifth street northwest, Friday, November 15, at 9 a.m., thence to St. Mary's Catholic Church, where solemn requiem mass will be held at 9:30. Relatives and friends invited to attend. BERRYMAN-On Tuesday, November 12, 1907, at 11 p. m., at Takoma Park, D. C., ARTHUR, son of Silas and Daisy Berryman, aged five years and seven months.

Funeral from his late residence Thursday, November 14, at 9:30 a. m. Interment at Reistertown, Md. (Baltimore papers please copy.) BITTONI, JOSEPH-On Wednesday, November 13, 1907, at 11:10 a. m. Funeral from his late residence, 63 H street northeast, Friday, 3 p. m. Interment in Mount

CASSIDY—The burial of First Sergt. PATRICK CASSIDY, retired, late Battery H. Second U. S. Artillery, will take place on Thursday, Novem-ber 14, 1907, at 1 p. m., from Undertaker Geier's, 1113 Seventh street. Interment at Ar-

ELMER-On Monday, November 11, 1907, at his home, in Middletown, Conm. Judge WILLIAM THOMAS ELMER, late justice of the Connecti-cut Superior Court, and father of Mrs. H. H. Hawxhurst, of this city, in his seventy-fourth

SESCHINGER—Suddenly, on Wednesday morning.

November 15, 1907, FREDERICKE ESCHINGER, wife of August Eschinger, in her sixty-seventh year.

Funeral from the residence of her son-in-law,
Theodore Abner, 406 East Capitol street, Friday, November 15, 1907, at 2 p. m. Interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

EINEEV. On Translaw, November 19, 1907, et the FINLEY-On Tuesday, November 12, 1907, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Sothern, 4133 residence of her daughter, Mrs. Sothern, 4133 Conduit road, CATHERINE, beloved wife of Patrick Finley.

Notice of funeral hereafter. (Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, and Alexandria papers please copy.)

JACKSON—Departed this life on Monday, November II, 1997, after a 'mg illness, ALICE E. JACKSON, the belt of mother of Saiab, Damon, Nelson, and Clareace Jakson.

Funeral from the Liberty Baptist Church, on Thursday, November 14, at 2 p. m. Friends are invited to attend. JONES-On Monday, November II, 1907, at 7:30 p. m., at her residence, 627 Springman court southwest, LUCY JANE JONES, beloved wife of William Jones and daughter of Marry E.

Funeral services at 2 o'ciock on Thursday, No-vember 14, 1997, at Zion Baptist Church, F street southwest. William Howard, pastor. STOCKMAN-On Monday, November II. 1907, at H.25 p. m., at Hyattsville, Md., ELLA M., beloved wife of James A. Stockman, Funeral from her late home Thursday, November II, at II a. m. Interment at Glenwood. TAUBERSCHMIDT—On Tuesday, November 12, 1997, at Ruppert Home, Anacostia, D. C., GEORGE TAUBERSCHMIDT, aged sixty-one years, Funeral from Thomas R. Nalley & Son's funeral pariors, 1231 Eleventh street southeast, on Thursday, Norember 14, 1907, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. Interment at Prospect Hill Cemetery.

FUNERAL DE 16NS.

Of Every Description-Moderately l'riced GUDE. 1216 F ST. NORTHWEST.

> FUNERAL DIRECTORS. GEORGE P. ZURHORST, 201 East Capitol Street.

Largest Morning Circulation.

Complete Toilet Set in Sterling Silver, $10.50 A sterling silver setcomb, brush, and mirror, in satin-lined case; very heavy

"Look for the Big Clock"

carvings. Unusual bargain. Engraved Free. Selinger, F Street

Are You Sick? VIBRATORY STIMULATION

Will Cure You

Rheumatism Constipation Spinal Trouble Paralysis

Locomotor Ataxia And many other diseases, in the treatment of which Vibratory Stimulation is successfully applied.

TRIAL TREATMENT FREE Write for book on this wonderful Swedish Vibrator and testimonials from prominent people throughout the country as to what it will do.

S. Alexander Duvall THE CECIL

15th and L. Streets N. W. PHONE MAIN 661 DR. J. R. HAYES 614 Md. Ave. N. E. Diagnosing Physcian month up. Expert handlers. Estimates furnished. Merchants' Transfer and Storage Company, 920-922 E Street Northwest.

'Phone M. 659.

Separate locked rooms from $2

FIREPROOF STORAGE.

$1 Full Quart.

Only Christian Xander's

909 7th St. Phone M. 274.

A high-class dry Sherry, older and by far more del-icate than most Amontil-lados of trade. One of 19

Ten years old, $1.25. Order by 'phone. Also TENNESSEE, $1.00 Bottle. The Shoomaker Co. 1331 E St. N. W. Est. 1852. 'Phone Main 1158-M.

Consult

J. J. Georges & Son, Inc., Superior Chiropody.

Suction Guard

That's the name of the best eyeglass guard made. It holds better and more comfortably than any other guard we know about. Can be put on your glasses.

Steel 50c. Gold filled 75c. Solid gold $1 EDWIN TO OPTICIAN, 10.5 G St. "On G Street, Opp. Boston House."

 PHOOMAKER PENN RYE

.

Immediate Relief Assured.

No Branch Office. 1211 Penna. Ave. N. W.